MARIE TEMPEST

Dear Theatregoer:

In my opinion Marie Tempest is the greatest comedienne of our time, but my opinion is of no value beside that of those best capable to judge good acting—the Great Ones of Our Theatre who have scaled the heights themselves.

An these stars—whose names are household words—greeted Miss Tempest's appearance in "A Scrpent's Tooth" with a spontaneous outpouring of sincere praise.

From the hundreds of messages received I quote: AUGUSTUS THOMAS: Marie Tempest's art is supreme. FRANCES STARR: Long may Marie Tempest reign queen

* DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS: I bow across the continent to one who has given our stage such great distinction.

* MARJOF'S RAMBEAU: Welcome to that great artiste,

Marie Tempest, ★ JOHN DREW: My respectful affection to the English Queen * BILLIE BURKE: The gratitude of the public for bringing that darling back,

* DAVID WARFIELD: The most delightful of players will receive the success she truly deserves. * MARY PICKFORD; Marie Tempest's art is above comparison.

★ HENRY MILLER: John Golden deserves the medale d'honneur for bringing Miss Tempest to us. * BLANCHE BATES: One of thousands overjoyed to welcome Marie Tempest.

NORMA TALMADGE: An actress so near to us in human LENORE ULRIC: The stage, the public and just everybody

* WILLIAM FAVERSHAM: Miss Tempest in the greatest representative of comedy.

* JUJA SANDERSON: A great artiste.

* WILLIAM S. HART: Good news to hundreds of thousands who have enjoyed her art.

* ELSIE JANIS: The American theatre is better for her presence.

* LEO DITRICHSTEIN: The most delightful artiste on our Miss Tempest is starring at the LITTLE THEATRE in
